Our independence and conflicts of interest

We manage and structure our business, and remuneration, to avoid conflicts of interest and our advisers are salaried employees. We use appropriate product research to ensure that the products we recommend to our clients are suitable for their needs and are not influenced by any commission or remuneration associated with them.

We have a policy of not partaking in or accepting, investment commission or 'soft dollar' incentive schemes. We work strictly in our clients' interests, and generally charge costs based on a management of investment portfolios model for our work, rebating any investment commission.

We have no ties to any banks and no contractual relationships with any product providers that require our advisers to place business with them.

From time to time, we may receive business support services from suppliers, which may include training and educational assistance, or sporadically receive merchandising sundry materials (such as golf balls, wine, or similar items of no significant value), the occasional meal or invitation to a sporting event.

What can you do if you are unhappy with any part of our service?

If you are not satisfied with our service or financial advice, please tell us as soon as possible so that we address your concerns. You can contact us at info@wealthandco.nz, or by calling 09 412 5844. You can also write to us at PO Box 604 Kumeu, Auckland 0841.

When we receive a complaint, we will let you know that we have received your complaint, give you a date we expect to resolve the complaint and a person to contact if you would like to discuss further. We aim to resolve complaints within 10 working days.

If we cannot agree on how to fix the issue, you can contact the Insurance and Financial Services Ombudsman Scheme (IFSO), of which Wealth & Co NZ Limited is a member. This service is independent and will cost you nothing, helping us resolve any disagreements.

You can contact IFSO at: PO Box 10-845 Wellington 6143 | Phone: 0800 888202 | Email: info@ifso.nz Web: www.ifso.nz
